

BIOLASE Wraps Inaugural Advancing Dentistry Symposium More Than 250 Dental Professionals Attended The Event To Learn The Latest Trends And Innovations In Dentistry From Leading Industry Experts

IRVINE, Calif., Oct. 23, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- BIOLASE, Inc. (NASDAQ: BIOL), the global leader in dental lasers, hosted the inaugural Advancing Dentistry Symposium in San Diego, California Oct. 18-19. More than 250 professionals in the dental field attended the event, which presented an opportunity for collaboration and immersive education around technologies and techniques that are advancing dentistry today.

"It was an honor to bring together dental professionals from all levels of experience to foster discussion around advancing dentistry," said BIOLASE CEO, Todd Norbe. "The way we treat dental needs is vastly different today. It is vital for a dental professional to know how to utilize the latest tools and integrate them into their practice seamlessly."

The keynote speaker, Dr. Gordon J. Christensen, founder of Practical Clinical Courses, kicked off the event with his presentation, What Clinical Techniques & Technologies Do You Really Need and Why. Dr. Donald S. Clem mentioned the first "Landmark Study" by the McGuire Institute, and Dr. Russell Morrow from Heartland Dental discussed integrating Waterlase into your practice. This was followed by a full agenda of modernized topics from other prominent leaders on digital dentistry, integrating technology, tongue-tie, esthetics, and more.

BIOLASE's partners for the event included leading dental companies and organizations, such as the Academy of Chairside Assisting, Align Technology, Glidewell Laboratories, Hu-Friedy, The Chen Laser Institute, My Clear Image, ORASCOPTIC, San Diego Dental Convention, Seiler Medical Division, Vatech, and World Clinical Laser Institute.
